

Daring the Dungeon!

Become one of our intrepid storytellers and create a completely unique story of adventure and daring! You and your friends will use a number of role-playing systems including Dungeons & Dragons, D6, and Basic Role-playing to create your own characters and enter into stories of dungeons, castles, and wizards, or even spaceships and aliens. We can go anywhere that our imaginations can take us!

Students will learn about how to create a character, how to work with other players to solve problems, and how to share the spotlight to collectively tell an amazing story that is enthralling for all participants.

Noah Dudley has had over 40 years of experience in creating, running, and teaching role-playing games.
